Junior Development

This program is designed to focus on each student's technique. Players will concentrate on the mechanics of the forehand, backhand, serve and volley. Point building, rules/regulations and strategy will be developed. This group is for players that are starting to compete in Grand Prix Tennis Tournaments.

Junior Excellence

This program is designed to work on the student's overall tennis game: stroke production, strategy & tactics, rules & regulations, and competition. The first part of the camp will be dedicated to drills and the second part to supervised match play. This group is for players that are actively competing in Grand Prix and Zat level tournaments.

High Performance

This program is designed for the junior player striving to achieve a high degree of competency with their game. The camp is for juniors that are in the Championship and Super Championship levels. The first part of the workout includes drills, conditioning, and instruction designed for match play. The second segment will be dedicated to match play with match evaluation.

Class meets 4 days weekly: Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday & Thursday
